

Do you receive SSI or SSDI and want to know how increased wages impact your benefits?

Work incentives counseling is for you!

Access these services in the following ways:

Step 1:

The Social Security Administration provides funding for work incentives counseling through its Work Incentives Planning and Assistance program (WIPA). To see if you are eligible for this service, please call the Ticket to Work helpline at 866-968-7842. After selecting your preferred language, choose option 3, to speak with a Work Specialist. Tell them you would like to know if you are eligible to learn how increased wages will impact your benefits. This is a 10–15 minute call to determine if you are a WIPA priority or “eligible”.

If you are determined to be a WIPA priority/eligible you will be assigned to one of four providers to receive work incentives counseling services.
